BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

SECTION 199.010 Bribery of judicial officer. A person who gives, offers or promises, directly or indirectly, any compensation, gratuity or reward to a judicial officer, juror, referee, arbitrator, appraiser, assessor or other person authorized by law to hear or determine any question, matter, cause, proceeding or controversy, with the intent to influence his action, vote, opinion or decision thereupon, is guilty of a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.020 Judicial officer who asks for or receives bribe. A judicial officer who asks or receives, directly or indirectly, any compensation, gratuity or reward, or any promise thereof, upon an agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision or other official proceeding will be influenced thereby, or that he will do or omit any act or proceeding or in any way neglect or violate any official duty, is guilty of a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.030 Jurors and others accepting bribes. A juror, referee, arbitrator, appraiser, assessor or other person authorized by law to hear or determine any question, matter, cause, controversy or proceeding, who asks or receives, directly or indirectly, any compensation, gratuity or reward, or any promise thereof, upon an agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, action, judgment or decision will be influenced thereby, is guilty of a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.040 Influencing juror, arbitrator, referee or prospective juror. Every person who shall influence, or attempt to influence, improperly, in their respective capacities as such, a juror or any person drawn or summoned as a prospective juror in a civil or criminal action or any proceeding, or any person chosen or appointed as an arbitrator or referee, in respect to his verdict, judgment, report, award or decision in any cause or matter pending or about to be brought before him, or which may prospectively be brought before him, in any case or in any manner not provided for by law, shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.050 Juror, arbitrator or referee promising verdict or decision or receiving communication. Every juror and every person chosen or appointed arbitrator or referee who shall make any promise or agreement to give a verdict, judgment, report, award or decision for or against any party, or who shall willfully receive any communication, book, paper, instrument or information relating to a cause or matter pending before him, except according to the regular course of proceeding upon the trial or hearing of such cause or matter, shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.060 Misconduct of officer drawing jury. Every person charged by law with the preparation of any jury list or list of names from which any jury is to be drawn, and every person authorized by law to assist at the drawing of a grand or petit jury to attend a court or to try any cause or issue, who shall:

1. Place in any such list any name at the request or solicitation, direct or indirect, of any person;
 2. Designedly put upon the list of jurors, as having been drawn, any name which was not lawfully drawn for that purpose;
 3. Designedly omit to place upon such list any name which was lawfully drawn;
 4. Designedly sign or certify a list of such jurors as having been drawn which were not lawfully drawn;
 5. Designedly and wrongfully withdraw from the box or other receptacle for the ballots containing the names of such jurors any paper or ballot lawfully placed or belonging there and containing the name of a juror, or omit to place therein any name lawfully drawn or designated or place therein a paper or ballot containing the name of a person not lawfully drawn and designated as a juror; or
 6. In drawing or impaneling such jury, do any act, which is unfair, partial or improper in any respect,
- ↪ shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.070 Soliciting jury duty. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, solicit or request any person charged with the duty of preparing any jury list to put his name, or the name of any other person, on any such list shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.080 Misconduct of officer in charge of jury. Every person to whose charge a jury shall be committed by a court or magistrate, who shall knowingly, without leave of such court or magistrate, permit them or any one of them to receive any communication from any person, to make any communication to any person, to obtain or receive any book, paper or refreshment, or to leave the jury room, shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.090 Testimony of offender. Every person offending against any of the provisions of law relating to bribery or corruption shall be a competent witness against another so offending and shall not be excused from giving testimony tending to criminate himself, but such testimony shall not afterward be used against him in any judicial proceeding, except for perjury in giving such testimony.

RESCUES

SECTION 199.100 Rescuing prisoner.

1. A person who, by force or fraud, rescues from lawful custody, or from an officer or person having him in lawful custody, a prisoner held upon a charge, arrest, commitment, conviction or sentence for CATEGORY A OFFENSE is guilty of a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.110 Retaking goods from custody of officer. Every person who shall take from the custody of any officer or other person any personal property in his charge under any process of law, or who shall willfully injure or destroy such property, shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

PERJURY AND SUBORNATION OF PERJURY

SECTION 199.120 Definition; penalties. A person, having taken a lawful oath or made affirmation in a judicial proceeding or in any other matter where, by law, an oath or affirmation is required and no other penalty is prescribed, who:

1. Willfully makes an unqualified statement of that which he does not know to be true;
2. Swears or affirms willfully and falsely in a matter material to the issue or point in question;

3. Suborns any other person to make such an unqualified statement or to swear or affirm in such a manner;
 4. Executes an affidavit pursuant to NRS 15.010 which contains a false statement, or suborns any other person to do so; or
 5. Executes an affidavit or other instrument which contains a false statement before a person authorized to administer oaths or suborns any other person to do so,
- ↪ is guilty of perjury or subornation of perjury, as the case may be, which is a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.125 “Oath” and “swear” defined.

1. The term “oath” shall include an affirmation and every other mode authorized by law of attesting the truth of that which is stated.
2. A person who shall state any matter under oath shall be deemed to “swear” thereto.

SECTION 199.130 False affidavit or complaint to effect arrest or search.

1. A person who makes, executes or signs or causes to be made, executed or signed, any false or fictitious affidavit, complaint, deposition, or other instrument in writing before any officer or person authorized to administer oaths, for the purpose or with the intent of securing a warrant for the arrest of any other person, or for the purpose of securing a warrant for the searching of the premises, goods, chattels or effects, or of seizing the goods, chattels or effects, or of seizing anything in the possession of any other person, is guilty of perjury which is a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.140 Use of fictitious name on affidavit or complaint to effect arrest or search.

1. A person who makes, executes or signs, or causes to be made, executed or signed, any affidavit, complaint or other instrument, in writing, before any United States officer or person, or before any state officer or person, authorized to administer oaths, for the purpose or with the intent of securing a warrant for the arrest of any other person, or for the purpose of securing a warrant for the searching of the premises, goods, chattels or effects, or of seizing the goods, chattels or effects, or of seizing anything in the possession of any other person, and signs the same by any other name than his or her true name, is guilty of perjury which is a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.145 Statement made in declaration under penalty of perjury. A person who, in a declaration made under penalty of perjury:

1. Makes a willful and false statement in a matter material to the issue or point in question; or
 2. Willfully makes an unqualified statement of that which he does not know to be true,
- ↪ or who suborns another to make in such a declaration a statement of the kind described in subsection 1 or 2, is guilty of perjury or subornation of perjury, as the case may be, which is a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.150 Attempt to suborn perjury. Every person who, without giving, offering or promising a bribe, shall incite or attempt to procure another to commit perjury, or to offer any false evidence, or to withhold true testimony, though no perjury be committed or false evidence offered or true testimony withheld, shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.180 Irregularity in administering oath or incompetency of witness no defense. It shall be no defense to a prosecution for perjury that an oath was administered or taken in an irregular manner or that the defendant was not competent to give the testimony, deposition, certificate or affidavit of which falsehood is alleged. It shall be sufficient that he actually gave such testimony or made such deposition, certificate or affidavit.

SECTION 199.190 Deposition: When deemed to be complete. The making of a deposition, certificate or affidavit shall be deemed to be complete when it is subscribed and sworn to or affirmed by the defendant with intent that it be uttered or published as true.

SECTION 199.200 Statement of what one does not know to be true. Every unqualified statement of that which one does not know to be true is equivalent to a statement of that which he knows to be false.

FALSIFYING EVIDENCE

SECTION 199.210 Offering false evidence. A person who, upon any trial, hearing, inquiry, investigation or other proceeding authorized by law, offers or procures to be offered in evidence, as genuine, any book, paper, document, record or other instrument in writing, knowing the same to have been forged or fraudulently altered, is guilty of a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.220 Destroying evidence. Every person who, with intent to conceal the commission of any Category A offense, or to protect or conceal the identity of any person committing the same, or with intent to delay or hinder the administration of the law or to prevent the production thereof at any time, in any court or before any officer, tribunal, judge or magistrate, shall willfully destroy, alter, erase, obliterate or conceal any book, paper, record, writing, instrument or thing shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.230 Preventing or dissuading person from testifying or producing evidence. A person who, by persuasion, force, threat, intimidation, deception or otherwise, and with the intent to obstruct the course of justice, prevents or attempts to prevent another person from appearing before any court, or person authorized to subpoena witnesses, as a witness in any action, investigation or other official proceeding, or causes or induces another person to absent himself from such a proceeding or evade the process which requires him to appear as a witness to testify or produce a record, document or other object, shall be punished:

1. Where physical force or the immediate threat of physical force is used, for a Category A offense.
2. Where no physical force or immediate threat of physical force is used, for a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.240 Bribing or intimidating witness to influence testimony. A person who:

1. Gives, offers or promises directly or indirectly any compensation, gratuity or reward to any witness or person who may be called as a witness in an official proceeding, upon an agreement or understanding that his testimony will be thereby influenced; or
 2. Uses any force, threat, intimidation or deception with the intent to:
 - (a) Influence the testimony of any witness or person who may be called as a witness in an official proceeding;
 - (b) Cause or induce him to give false testimony or to withhold true testimony; or
 - (c) Cause or induce him to withhold a record, document or other object from the proceeding,
- ↪ is guilty of a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.242 Limitations on defenses to prosecution for influencing testimony of witness. It is not a defense to a prosecution under SECTION 199.230 or 199.240 to show that:

1. An official proceeding was not pending or about to be instituted; or
2. The testimony sought or the record, document or other object to have been produced would have been legally privileged or inadmissible in evidence.

SECTION 199.250 Witness accepting bribe. A person who is or may be a witness upon a trial, hearing, investigation or other proceeding before any court, tribunal or person authorized to hear evidence or take testimony, who asks or receives, directly or indirectly, any compensation, gratuity or reward, or any promise thereof, upon an agreement or understanding that his testimony will be influenced thereby, or that he will absent himself from the trial, hearing or other proceeding, is guilty of a Category A offense.

OTHER OFFENSES

SECTION 199.280 Resisting public officer. A person who, in any case or under any circumstances not otherwise specially provided for, willfully resists, delays or obstructs a public officer in discharging or attempting to discharge any legal duty of his office shall be punished:

1. Where a dangerous weapon is used in the course of such resistance, obstruction or delay, for a Category A offense.

2. Where no dangerous weapon is used in the course of such resistance, obstruction or delay, for a Category C offense.

SECTION 199.300 Intimidating public officer, public employee, juror, referee, arbitrator, appraiser, assessor or similar person.

1. A person shall not, directly or indirectly, address any threat or intimidation to a public officer, public employee, juror, referee, arbitrator, appraiser, assessor or any person authorized by law to hear or determine any controversy or matter, with the intent to induce him, contrary to his duty to do, make, omit or delay any act, decision or determination, if the threat or intimidation communicates the intent, either immediately or in the future:

(a) To cause bodily injury to any person;

(b) To cause physical damage to the property of any person other than the person addressing the threat or intimidation;

(c) To subject any person other than the person addressing the threat or intimidation to physical confinement or restraint; or

(d) To do any other act which is not otherwise authorized by law and is intended to harm substantially any person other than the person addressing the threat or intimidation with respect to his health, safety, business, financial condition or personal relationships.

2. The provisions of this section must not be construed as prohibiting a person from making any statement in good faith of an intention to report any misconduct or malfeasance by a public officer or employee.

3. A person who violates subsection 1 is guilty of:

(a) If physical force or the immediate threat of physical force is used in the course of the intimidation or in the making of the threat:

(1) For a first offense, a Category A offense.

(2) For a second or subsequent offense, a Category A offense.

(b) If no physical force or immediate threat of physical force is used in the course of the intimidation or in the making of the threat, a Category B offense.

4. As used in this section, "public employee" means any person who performs public duties for compensation paid by the State, a county, city, local government or other political subdivision of the State or an agency thereof, including, without limitation, a person who performs a service for compensation pursuant to a contract with the State, county, city, local government or other political subdivision of the State or an agency thereof.

SECTION 199.305 Preventing or dissuading victim, person acting on behalf of victim, or witness from reporting crime, commencing prosecution or causing arrest.

1. A person who, by intimidating or threatening another person, prevents or dissuades a victim of a crime, a person acting on his behalf or a witness from:

 - (5) Warden or other employee at an institution of the Department of Corrections; or
 - (6) Superintendent or other employee at a juvenile correctional institution;
- (b) Commencing a criminal prosecution or a proceeding for the revocation of a parole or probation, or seeking or assisting in such a prosecution or proceeding; or
- (c) Causing the arrest of a person in connection with a crime,
- ↳ or who hinders or delays such a victim, agent or witness in his effort to carry out any of those actions is guilty of a Category A offense.
2. As used in this section, "victim of a crime" means a person against whom a crime has been committed.

SECTION 199.310 Malicious prosecution. A person who maliciously and without probable cause therefor, causes or attempts to cause another to be arrested or proceeded against for any crime of which he is innocent:

- 1. If the crime is a Category A offense, is guilty of a Category A offense; and
 - 2. If the crime is a Category B offense.
- or Category C offense, is guilty of a Category C offense.

SECTION 199.335 Failure to appear after admission to bail or release without bail.

- 1. If a person:
 - (a) Is admitted to bail, whether provided by deposit or surety, or released without bail;
 - (b) Is not recommitted to custody; and
 - (c) Fails to appear at the time and place required by the order admitting him to bail or releasing him without bail, or any modification thereof,
 ↳ the person is guilty of failing to appear and shall be punished pursuant to the provisions of this section, unless the person surrenders himself not later than 30 days after the date on which the person was required to appear.
- 2. If a person who fails to appear in violation of subsection 1 was admitted to bail or released without bail incident to prosecution for:
 - (a) One or more felonies, the person is guilty of a Category A offense.
 - (b) One or more Category B offenses but no Category A offenses, the person is guilty of:
 - (1) A Category B offenses; or
 - (2) If the person left this Reservation with the intent to avoid prosecution, a Category A offense.
 - (c) One or more Category C offenses but no Category A offenses or Category B offenses, the person is guilty of:
 - (1) A Category C offense; or
 - (2) If the person left this Reservation with the intent to avoid prosecution, a Category A offense.

SECTION 199.340 Criminal contempt. Every person who shall commit a contempt of court of any one of the following kinds shall be guilty of a Category C offense:

- 1. Disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior committed during the sitting of the court, in its immediate view and presence, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its authority;
- 2. Behavior of like character in the presence of a referee, while actually engaged in a trial or hearing pursuant to an order of court, or in the presence of a jury while actually sitting in the trial of a cause or upon an inquest or other proceeding authorized by law;
- 3. Breach of the peace, noise or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt the proceedings of a court, jury or referee;
- 4. Willful disobedience to the lawful process or mandate of a court;
- 5. Resistance, willfully offered, to its lawful process or mandate;
- 6. Contumacious and unlawful refusal to be sworn as a witness or, after being sworn, to answer any legal and proper interrogatory;
- 7. Publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of its proceedings; or
- 8. Assuming to be an attorney or officer of a court or acting as such without authority.

SECTION 199.430 Impersonation of officer. Every person who shall falsely personate a public officer, civil or military, or a policeman, or a private individual having special authority by law to perform an act affecting the rights or interests of another, or who, without authority shall assume any uniform or badge by which such an officer or person is lawfully distinguished, and in such assumed character shall do any act purporting to be official, whereby another is injured or defrauded, shall be guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.440 Search warrant maliciously procured. Whoever shall maliciously, and without probable cause, procure a search warrant to be issued and executed shall be deemed guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.450 Peace officer exceeding authority in execution of search warrant. A peace officer who, in executing a search warrant, shall willfully exceed his authority, or exercise it with unnecessary severity, shall be deemed guilty of a Category B offense.

SECTION 199.460 Extortion of confession; refusing accused communication with attorney or friends.

1. An officer or person having the custody and control of the body or liberty of any person under arrest shall not refuse permission to the arrested person to communicate at reasonable times and intervals with his friends or with an attorney, or subject any person under arrest to any form of personal violence, intimidation, indignity or threats for the purpose of extorting from that person incriminating statements or a confession.

2. A person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished:

(a) Where physical force or the immediate threat of physical force is used in the course of extorting statements or a confession, or where substantial bodily harm to the arrested person results from such violence, intimidation or indignity, for a Category A offense.

(b) Where no physical force or immediate threat of physical force is used in the course of extorting statements or a confession, or where no substantial bodily harm results to the arrested person from such violence, intimidation or indignity, for a Category B offense.

(c) Where the only offense is to refuse permission to the arrested person to communicate with his friends or with an attorney, for a Category C offense.

SECTION 199.470 Malicious destruction of legal and other notices. Every person who shall willfully and maliciously remove, damage or destroy:

1. A sign or notice erected or posted by any officer under lawful authority, or by the owner or occupant of the premises where posted; or
