1. Authority.

a. Article V, Section 2(a) of the Constitution grants the Legislature the power to make laws, including codes, ordinances, resolutions, and statutes.

b. Article V, Section 2(f) of the Constitution grants the Legislature the power to set the salaries, terms and conditions of employment for all governmental personnel.

c. Article V, Section 2(h) of the Constitution grants the Legislature the power to enact all laws prohibiting and regulating conduct and imposing penalties upon all persons within the jurisdiction of the Nation.

d. Article V, Section 2(r) of the Constitution requires the Legislature to protect and foster Ho-Chunk religious freedom, culture, language, and traditions.

e. Article V, Section 3 of the Constitution provides that the Legislature shall adopt Codes governing Membership, Open Meetings, Elections, Ethics including conflicts of interest, nepotism, and the conduct of all Public Officials, and other Codes as deemed necessary.

2. Purpose. This Act provides the Ho-Chunk Nation with a Code of Ethics as required by the Constitution.

3. Preamble. This Act will be known as the Ho-Chunk Nation Code of Ethics Act (2 HCC § 1) and shall be given liberal interpretation in the interest of ensuring voluntary compliance with its requirements. The enforcement of this Code shall be governed by the following goals:

a. To foster a free and good government to the Ho-Chunk Nation by assisting Public Officials to avoid conflicts between personal interest and public responsibilities.

b. To serve as a useful reference for guidance to avoid conflicts and to improve the level of public service of Public Officials.

c. To improve standards of public service.

d. To promote and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of the Ho-Chunk Nation in their government.

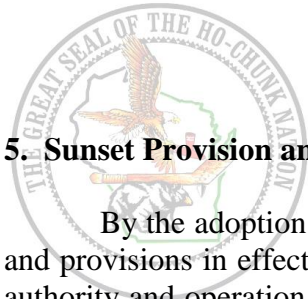

4. Declaration of the Code of Ethics Act.

a. It is declared that high moral and ethical standards among Ho-Chunk Nation Public Officials is essential to the conduct of free government and it is the intent of the Legislature that this Act promotes the highest ethical conduct for all Public Officials of the Ho-Chunk Nation.

b. In addition, to following all other laws of the Nation, this Code shall be applied to all Public Officials of the Ho-Chunk Nation.

c. The Ho-Chunk Nation's Employment Relations Act (6 HCC § 5) or superseding employment law shall be applied to employees of the Nation not expressly cited under Section 4.b., above, of this Act.

d. Pertaining to Judges and Justices, if there are any conflicts between this Code and the Ho-Chunk Nation Rules of Judicial Ethics, the Ho-Chunk Nation Rules of Judicial Ethics shall control.

5. Sunset Provision and Transition.

By the adoption of amendments to this Code, through Resolution 6/20/17Z, the language and provisions in effect before June 20, 2017 relating to the Ethics Review Board, its existence, authority and operation are removed from the Code. However, if the Board has complaints and cases pending as of June 20, 2017, the Board will complete its review and determination on such cases. The provisions struck from the Code by Resolution 6/20/17Z may be applied and enforced by the Ethics Review Board for any case pending with the Board before June 20, 2017. After this, and as each case is resolved through Final Decision of the Board, such provisions will sunset and cease to exist. See Legislative History Note to Resolution 6/20/17Z appended to this Code

6. Definitions. As used in this Act, the following shall have the meaning provided here.

a. “Any Thing of Value” means any money or property, favor, service, payment, advance, forbearance, loan, gift, or promise of future employment, but does not include compensation and expenses paid by the Nation, fees and expenses which are permitted, or hospitality extended for a purpose unrelated to the Nation’s business by a person other than an organization.

b. “Associated” when used with reference to an organization, includes any organization in which an individual or a member of his or her immediate family is a director, officer or trustee, or owns or controls any organization, directly or indirectly.

c. “Complaint” means the document filed by the Complainant with the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court reporting violations of this Code of Ethics Act by a Public Official.

d. “Complainant” means any Ho-Chunk Tribal Member, current employee of the Nation, or person who was employed by the Nation within the last year, 18 years of age or older, who files a Complaint with the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court alleging that a Public Official of the Nation violated the Code of Ethics Act.

e. “Elective Office” means any office regularly filled by a vote of the People of the Ho-Chunk Nation.

g. “Gift” means a voluntary transfer of property to another made gratuitously and without consideration.

h. “Honoraria” means a payment of money or anything of value made to a person for services rendered. Any stipends or reimbursement paid to an individual for service to a partially or wholly owned Tribal entity pursuant to a Legislative approved program shall not be considered honoraria for purposes of the reporting requirements of Section 9.d. of this Act, but shall be subject to the prohibition of double payment contained at Section 9.e.

i. “Immediate Family” means any of the following:

(1) An individual’s spouse.

(2) An individual’s relative by marriage, lineal descent or adoption who receives, directly or indirectly, more than one-half of his or her support from the individual or from whom the individual receives, directly or indirectly, more than one-half of his or her support.

(3) Any person living in a spousal relationship with another.

(4) A son or daughter (including adopted children), brother, sister, mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, grandson or granddaughter.

j. “Income” has the meaning given under the United States Internal Revenue Code Sec. 61. Except as otherwise provided in this subtitle, income means all income from whatever source derived, including, but not limited to, any of the following items:

(1) Compensation for services, including fees, commissions, fringe benefits, and similar items.

(2) Gross income derived from business.

(3) Gains derived from dealings in property.

(4) Interest.

(5) Rents.

(6) Royalties.

(7) Dividends.

(8) Alimony and separate maintenance payments.

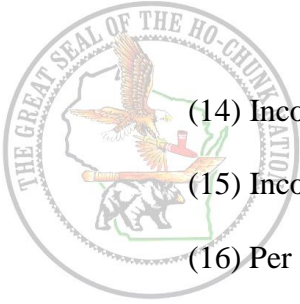

(9) Annuities.

(10) Income from life insurance and endowment contracts.

(11) Pensions.

(12) Income from discharge of indebtedness.

(13) Distributive share of partnership gross income.

(14) Income in respect of a decedent.

(15) Income from an interest in an estate or trust.

(16) Per Capita from a Tribe.

k. “Malfeasance” means the commission of an act that is positively unlawful. The doing of an act which a person ought not to do at all. The unjust performance of some act which the party had the right to commit. Any wrongful conduct, which affects, interrupts, or interferes with the performance of official duty. An act for which there is no authority.

l. “Ministerial Action” means an action that an individual performs under the authority of a superior without exercise of the individual’s discretion, judgment or skill, as to the propriety of the action being taken.

m. “Misfeasance” means the improper performance of some act, which a person may lawfully do.

n. “Nonfeasance” means the omission of an act, which a person ought to do. The non-performance of an act which a person has a responsibility or obligation to perform. A substantial failure to perform a required legal duty. Total neglect of a duty.

o. “Public Official” means, but is not limited to, any person who holds elective office or who is a candidate for elective office such as President, Vice-President, Legislator, Justice; appointed professionals such as Judges, Departmental Executive Directors, Executive Board members and alternates, Gaming Commissioners, Election Board members and alternates; various Board members and alternates; persons selected, nominated and/or confirmed by their respective District and/or the Nation, persons employed in a position for which a license is required for employment, i.e. attorneys, physicians and nurses; provided, however, that for the purposes of the quarterly disclosures required under Section 6.p and Section 9d(1), this definition is limited to Public Officials who have been elected or appointed to their positions, and/or those who have been nominated or confirmed by their respective District or the Nation to represent an Area or a community on any Ho-Chunk Nation Board, Commission, Committee, or Agency.

p. “Organization” means any corporation, partnership, proprietorship, firm, enterprise, association, trust or other legal entity other than an individual or public body provided that, if the entity is wholly or partly owned by the Nation and the individual serves as an officer or director by virtue of Legislative appointment, the entity shall be deemed an integral part of the Nation and not a separate organization for the purposes of this Act, and the individual shall owe the ethical duties described in this Act to the entity equally with the duties the individual owes to the Nation.

q. “Perjury” means a false statement knowingly made under oath.

r. “Redacted” means a document missing private information that is not essential for informing the public.

s. “Secretary” or “Nation’s Secretary” means the person(s) designated as the Legislative Secretary unless otherwise so identified within this Act.

t. “Treasurer” means the Executive Director of the Ho-Chunk Nation Department of Treasury.

7. Standards of Conduct.

a. The Legislature hereby affirms that a Public Official holds his or her position as a public trust with a fiduciary responsibility to the Nation.

b. This Act does not prevent any non-elected, part-time, or volunteer official of the Nation from accepting other employment or following any pursuit that in no way interferes with the full and faithful discharge of his or her duties to the Nation. The Nation further recognizes that the standards of ethical conduct need to distinguish between those minor and inconsequential conflicts that are unavoidable in a free society; and that officials of the Nation may need to engage in employment, professional or business activities, other than official duties, in order to support themselves or their families and to maintain a continuity of professional or business activity, which does not conflict with the specific provisions of this Act, unless specifically provided to the contrary by the Nation's Constitution or other laws.

c. All Public Officials are working in the public interest with a duty to place loyalty to the Ho-Chunk Nation Constitution and adherence to the laws of the Ho-Chunk Nation and ethical principles of conduct above personal and private gain.

d. Public Officials shall adhere to the laws of the Nation, be patient, dignified and courteous to constituents, co-officials, and others with whom they deal with in an official capacity.

e. Public Officials shall put forth an honest effort in the performance of their duties.

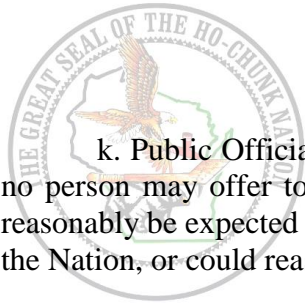

f. Public Officials shall make no commitments or promises purporting to bind the Nation without appropriate authorization.

g. No Public Official may use his or her position or office to obtain financial gain or anything of substantial value for the private benefit of himself or herself or his or her immediate family, or for an organization with which he or she is associated.

h. Public Officials shall not utilize the Nation's resources and property for unauthorized activities.

i. Public Officials shall not threaten or intimidate any employee of the Nation in reprisal for the employee acting within the scope of the employee's official duties and authority.

j. Public Officials shall not give preferential treatment to any private person or organization nor shall preferential treatment be afforded to any Public Official in any position of authority.

k. Public Officials shall not solicit or accept, directly or indirectly, anything of value and no person may offer to give to any official of the Nation, anything of value, if the gift could reasonably be expected to influence the vote, official actions or judgment of the Public Official of the Nation, or could reasonably be considered a reward for any official action or inaction.

l. Public Officials shall not intentionally use or disclose information gained in the course of or by reason of his or her Public Official position or activities in any way that could result in the receipt of anything of value for his or her self, for his or her immediate family, or for any other person, if the information is not in the public domain.

m. Public Officials shall not engage in financial transactions using non-public, government information or allow the improper use of non-public, governmental information to further any private interest.

n. Public Officials shall not use or attempt to use the position held by the official or unclassified employee to influence or gain unlawful benefits, advantages or privileges personally or for their immediate family.

o. Public Officials shall adhere to the administrative responsibilities of the Nation, which include, but are not limited to, work product, and conduct of staff as follows:

(1) Prohibiting staff from making statements on behalf of the Nation without permission.

(2) Requiring staff to observe high standards of honesty and diligence.

(3) Initiating appropriate disciplinary measures against professional staff for unprofessional conduct which the official may become aware of.

p. On a quarterly basis, Public Officials who have been elected or appointed to their positions, and/or those who have been nominated or confirmed by their respective District or the Nation to represent an area or a community on any Ho-Chunk Nation Board, Commission, Committee, or Agency, shall have the following information disclosed in a detailed report provided by the Treasury Department and made available to the general Ho-Chunk Nation public:

(1) Total amount received for mileage compensation during the previous quarter for all compensation that was paid with HCN NPD funds;

(2) Expenses incurred on any HCN issued credit card (excluding fleet vehicle gas cards), to include description on each item or service purchased;

(3) Total travel expenses incurred, including but not limited to airfare expenses, vehicle rental expenses, taxi/shuttle expenses, vehicle parking expenses, to include detail on the location and purpose of each trip taken for all trips, provided these expenses were paid for with HCN NPD funds;

(4) Total amount received for per diem compensation or received in stipend payments if this compensation is paid from HCN NPD funds;

(5) Total amount received as a reimbursement for any expenses provided the reimbursement was paid for using HCN NPD funds; and

(6) The Treasury Department shall make the reports available to any HCN Tribal Member to review in person at the office of the Treasury Department.

8. Conflicts of Interest and Nepotism Prohibited.

a. No Public Official may take any official action or participate in decisions in which the Public Official is associated with or a member of his or her immediate family, or an organization with which they have a substantial financial interest in. See Section 8.b. for exceptions for Legislators.

b. Public Officials shall not participate in decision making on an issue if his or her action or inaction is reasonably questionable, including but not limited to, personal bias or knowledge that individually the person or any member of the person's immediate family or spouse's immediate family, or anyone residing in his or her household has a financial interest that could be substantially affected provided, however, that a person may, instead of withdrawing, disclose on the record the basis of the person's interest or involvement in the issue.

c. A Public Official shall regulate his or her extra governmental activities to minimize the risk of conflict with duties of their office.

d. Public Officials shall respect and comply with the laws and traditions of the Nation and shall at all times act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the honesty and impartiality of the government by resisting any improper influence of immediate family, social or other personal relationships, avoiding the use of the prestige or resources of the office to advance the private interest of immediate family, and not employing any special influence or being specially influenced.

e. Public Officials shall not hold financial interests that conflict with the conscientious performance of their duties.

9. Conflicts of Interest, Exceptions.

a. Except for as provided for in Section 8.b., any exceptions to this Code must be approved as an amendment to the law by the Legislature and as otherwise provided under Section 7.

b. Exceptions for Legislators:

(1) Exceptions to Section 7.a. Legislators must have a recorded and passed motion in the official Area Meeting Minutes from the People of that Legislator's District to vote on any conflicts of interest highlighted under Section 7.a. of this Act.

(2) Exceptions to Section 6.g. and Section 7 for the Appointment of Gaming Commissioners.

(a) The Ho-Chunk Nation Gaming Ordinance (5 HCC § 1) provides that when there is an open seat on the Gaming Commission the Legislature shall appoint the Gaming Commissioner to fill that open seat. Prior to the appointment the Legislature typically conducts interviews of all candidates for the position.

(b) If the steps outlined in Section 8.b.(2)(c) are followed, it shall not be a violation of Section 6.g. and Section 7 of this Act for a Legislator to participate in the interview process if an immediate family member is a candidate for the position of the Gaming Commissioner.

(c) If an immediate family member of a Legislator is a candidate for Gaming Commissioner and the Legislator wants to participate in the interview process of the Gaming Commissioner candidates, the following steps shall be taken:

(1) The Legislator shall not participate in the interview of the immediate family member and shall leave the room while the immediate family member is being interviewed;

(2) In place of the Legislator's score, the immediate family member of the Legislator shall receive the average of all Legislators who did conduct an interview of the candidate.

10. Gifts and Honoraria.

a. Public Officials are encouraged to meet with clubs, conventions, conferences, special interest groups, school groups, and other gatherings when not on official duty.

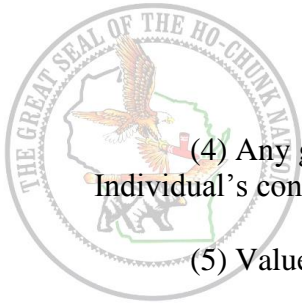

b. When on official duty, Public Officials are encouraged to meet with clubs, conventions, conferences, special interest groups, school groups and other gatherings if it is in the best interests of the Nation. Such Public Officials may take gifts bestowed upon them at such gatherings, so long as the gift is not cash.

c. A Public Official need not make a report of gifts and honoraria that are:

(1) Conveyed during a traditional tribal ceremony, or wedding.

(2) Conveyed during an official ceremony of the Ho-Chunk Nation.

(3) Conveyed during a pow-wow.

(4) Any gifts of nominal value conveyed by co-workers in appreciation of an Individual's contribution to the workplace.

(5) Valued at an estimated fair market value of less than $100.00.

d. If the value of such gift to a Public Official exceeds a fair market value of $50.00 from a company or vendor doing business with the Nation (or their representative), such as travel, vacations, meals or beverage, sporting events, merchandise, incentives, prizes, bonuses, hidden fees, stocks or other enticements, the recipient shall report the gift to the Ho-Chunk Nation Attorney General for documentation.

e. A Public Official of the Nation shall take either (1) only honoraria for participating in an extra-governmental event, ceremony, or similar function or (2) only regular work pay/salary, but not both simultaneously if the event occurs during work hours to avoid double payment by an organization and the tribe or an organization within the tribe.

11. Preliminary Advisory Opinions. Public Officials may personally or on behalf of an organization or governmental body, request a Preliminary Advisory Opinion from the Attorney General regarding the propriety of any matter relating to the business of the Nation, to which the person is or may become a party. All advisory opinions and requests for opinions shall be in writing. The Attorney General shall have 21 calendar days to form and issue a Preliminary Advisory Opinion. Intent to comply with this Act shall be assumed when a person refers a matter to the Attorney General and abides by the Attorney General's opinion, if the material facts are as stated in the opinion request. The Attorney General shall not make public the identity of the individual requesting a Preliminary Advisory Opinion or of individuals or organizations mentioned in the opinion unless compelled to reveal that information by the Nation's Courts or under any other law of the Nation.

12. Complaints

a. Reporting Violations.

(1) Who can file.

The Legislature hereby expressly authorizes any Ho-Chunk Tribal Member, current employee of the Nation, or person who was employed by the Nation within a year's time of filing the Complaint, 18 years of age or older, who in good faith believes or has reason to believe that a Public Official subject to this Act has committed a violation of this Act may report such act. The Complaint shall be filed in the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court, consistent with the rules established by the Court, and within one year from the date of the alleged violation.

(2) Contents of the Complaint.

Any Complaint under this section shall include, but is not limited to, the following information:

- (a) The name of the person reporting the alleged violation and the name of the person whose alleged violation is in question.
- (b) The nature of the alleged violation including the date, time, place, and persons involved and/or who may have knowledge pertinent to the alleged violation. The Complaint must clearly state the provision(s) of the Code allegedly violated.
- (c) A sworn statement attesting that the information they have forwarded is true, accurate, and complete to the best of his or her knowledge.
- (d) Any other information deemed necessary, or required, by the Court pursuant to its established rules of procedure.

(3) How to file.

The Complaint to the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court shall be filed pursuant to the rules of procedure established by the Court.

b. Action after Filing.

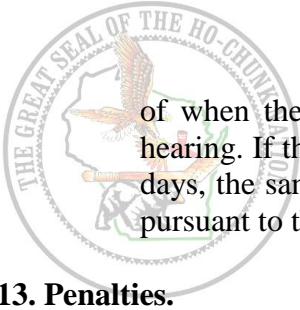

Upon receiving a Complaint pursuant to Section 12.a. and determining that the Complaint meets the filing requirements of this Code, the Court will process the Complaint, allow a response, and decide the case pursuant to its established rules.

c. Responding to Complaints.

After the Complaint has been properly filed in the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court, the Respondent will be afforded the opportunity to respond by filing an Answer, consistent with the rules established by the Court.

d. Frivolous Complaints.

Reporting frivolous or unsubstantiated alleged violations will subject the person making the Complaint to a $500 sanction issued by the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court and/or a civil suit brought by the official accused by the false accusation. A person who receives a Frivolous Complaint sanction may submit a request for reconsideration, which must be received by the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court within 14 calendar days of when the Court's decision is filed. The Court then will hold a reconsideration hearing. If the Court does not receive a request for reconsideration within 14 calendar days, the sanction becomes a Final Decision of the Court, which is subject to review pursuant to the rules established by the Ho-Chunk Nation Supreme Court.

13. Penalties.

a. In order to advance the goals of free and good government, to provide ethical guidance to the Nation's officials, to improve the level and quality of public service, and to protect, promote, and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of the Nation in its government; any violation of this Act by a Public Official of the Nation is subject to the following penalties, in addition to those allowed under the Constitution of the Ho-Chunk Nation or other laws of the Nation.

b. The Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court shall make a final decision of whether a violation of this Act occurred. If a violation is proven, the Court shall assess an adequate penalty for the violation. The penalties may include, without limitation, restitution of any improperly received benefit and a monetary fine reflecting the severity of the violation. The Court may remand and refer the matter to the Nation's Department of Justice for further investigation as well.

c. A final decision by the Nation's Judiciary may lead the Legislature to initiate Removal or Recall pursuant to Article IX of the Constitution of the Ho-Chunk Nation.

d. Removal by operation of law shall occur pursuant to Article IX, Section 7 of the Constitution for officials and Legislative Resolution 12-29-98C for employees if any Public Official is convicted of a felony while in office.

e. The Nation's Crimes Against Ho-Chunk Nation Government and Government Officials (2 HCC § 16) may be applied by the Nation's Judiciary.

14. Enforcement of the Code of Ethics.

a. Presidential Enforcement. The President shall, within 30 calendar days of receipt of the final decision of the Nation's Judiciary, enforce penalties for violations of the Code of Ethics Act for the following persons:

(1) Public Officials of the Executive Branch.

(2) Members of boards and commissions administered by the President, except for members of the Gaming Commission, Election Board.

(3) Employees within the Executive Branch that require a professional license.

b. Legislative Enforcement. The Legislature shall, within 30 calendar days of receipt of the final decision of the Nation's Judiciary, enforce penalties for violation of the Code of Ethics for the following persons:

(1) Public Officials of the Legislature.

(2) President. If the President is found to have violated the Code of Ethics Act, the Legislature shall enforce the penalty, except for removal pursuant to Article IX of the Constitution.

(3) Chief Justice. If the Chief Justice is found to have violated the Code of Ethics Act, the Legislature shall enforce the penalty, except for removal pursuant to Article IX of the Constitution.

(4) Members of the Gaming Commission, and Election Board.

c. Judicial Enforcement. The Chief Justice shall, within 30 calendar days of receipt of the final decision of the Nation's Judiciary, enforce penalties for violation of the Code of Ethics Act for the following persons:

(1) Associate Justices of the Supreme Court.

(2) Trial Court Judges.

15. Former Elected or Appointed Officials.

a. Post-Employment Restrictions.

(1) An elected or appointed official of the Ho-Chunk Nation is restricted from assisting, aiding, advising, or representing other interests for one year after his or her government service terminates when:

(a) The post-employment concerns any compacts, contracts, agreements, or negotiations in which he or she held a fiduciary responsibility to the Nation as an elected or appointed official, and

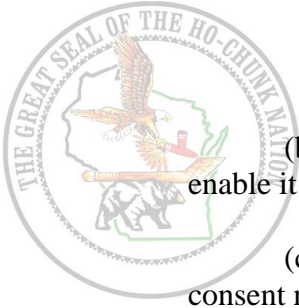

(b) His or her participation was personal or substantial.

(2) This restriction applies whether or not the elected or appointed official receives compensation.

(3) Within the period of one year after government service terminates, an elected or appointed official will provide written notice to the Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature if he or she seeks or has accepted employment that is in violation of Section 18.a.(1), above.

(4) The elected or appointed official may be exempted from the post-employment restriction under the following conditions:

(a) The former official is screened from any participation in matters described above and is apportioned no part of the fee from the Nation;

(b) Written notice is promptly given to the Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature to enable it to ascertain compliance with the provisions of this law; and

(c) The Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature consents after consultation; such consent not being unreasonably withheld.

b. Attorneys.

(1) Attorneys employed by the Nation are subject to Section 20:1.9 (Conflict of Interest: Former Client) of the Wisconsin's Rules of Professional Conduct adopted by the State Bar of Wisconsin.

(2) Successive Government and Private Employment. Except as Ho-Chunk Nation law may otherwise expressly permit, a lawyer shall not represent a private or another governmental client in connection with a matter in which the lawyer participated personally and substantially as an employee of the Nation, unless the Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature consents after consultation; such consent not being unreasonably withheld. No lawyer in a firm with which that lawyer is associated may knowingly undertake or continue representation in such a matter unless the lawyer is screened from any participation in the matter and is apportioned no part of the fee.

c. Enforcement and Penalties.

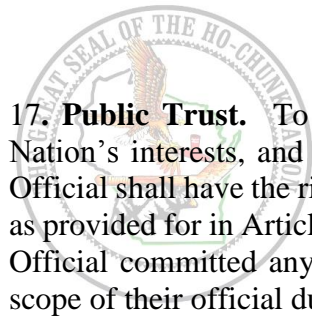

(1) Appointed and Elected Officials.

(a) The Ho-Chunk Nation Attorney General may bring a civil action in the Trial Court against any former elected or appointed official who engages in conduct constituting an offense under Section 18.a, above.

(b) Whoever engages in conduct constituting the offense and upon proof of such conduct by a preponderance of the evidence shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $5,000 for each violation or the amount of compensation which the person received or offered for the prohibited conduct, whichever amount is greater.

(2) Attorneys. The Ho-Chunk Nation Attorney General, upon proof of conduct in violation of any provision of Section 14.b. (2), above, by a preponderance of the evidence shall notify the Office of Lawyer Regulation of the State Bar of Wisconsin or similar Lawyer Regulation entity within a State Bar of another State of the alleged violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

16. Severability. If any provisions of this Act are determined by the Judiciary to be contrary to the Constitution, the invalid provision shall be severed from this Act and the remaining provisions shall be given full force and effect.

17. Public Trust. To secure the Nation’s rights, advance the general welfare, safeguard the Nation’s interests, and secure the natural and self-evident right to govern ourselves, no Public Official shall have the right to invoke, plead, or otherwise assert sovereign immunity as a defense, as provided for in Article XII of the Ho-Chunk Nation Constitution, to an assertion that the Public Official committed any violation of this Code where the Public Official was acting within the scope of their official duties and authority.
